TORRANCE HIGH SCHOOL PTA RECEIVES GATEWAY COUNCIL AT SCHOOL AUD

An informal outline of the many departments of Parent Teacher was given by Mrs. E. F. Hue, third vice-president of Tenth District, at the regular meeting of Gateway Council held Monday morning at Torrance high school. Mrs. V. E. Hopkins, president, conducted the business session. The speaker related incidents of the organization department, and told of the necessity for expanding foreign language groups. Among other things Mrs. Hue said "We should remember that what we do for our children will also do for our life" and she stressed the importance of family living and example, and the building of traditions. Mrs. J. J. Millard, program service chairman of the 10th district, presented the program.

In reporting on the sex education lectures conducted by Frances Bruce Strain, Mrs. Charles Lindquist, health chairman, said "Sex education today is a part of family life education with its central scheme one of human relationships. It is a liberating constructive force in behalf of home permanence, individual happiness and human welfare." Lectures are now being conducted at Redondo Union Evening high school Tuesday evenings beginning Jan. 8 through Feb. 12.

Mrs. F. S. Selover, the new president of Torrance High P.T.A. was introduced by Mrs. A. C. Turner, who has held the organization together during the

Fine Speaker Presents Program At Club Meeting

As guest speaker at Torrance Woman's Club last Wednesday afternoon, the former Corporal Monroe Manning, United States Army, was enthusiastically received. His narrations of his overseas experiences captivated his audience, particularly so when he described what he termed, "G.I. Joe's Meeting with Bill Shakespeare." Corp. Manning's description of the presentation of Shakespearean plays, lighter drama and concerts presented by his superior officer, Capt. Evans, an outstanding Shakespearean actor, were a revelation to the club women when they realized the handicap under which they were produced. Needless to say such effort toward morale building have paid dividends.

In the absence of Mrs. R. R. Smith, president, Mrs. Chris Jones first vice-president, conducted a brief business session, which immediately preceded the program. Mrs. J. A. Covington and her committee served as hostesses for the beautifully appointed tea following. Arrangements of colorful chrysanthemums decorated the tea table where Mrs. Myron A. Russell and Mrs. Gordon Smith poured.

Clubwomen and their friends are looking forward to the dinner which will be served by clubwomen tomorrow, Friday evening, Jan. 11 in the clubhouse from 6:00 to 7:00 o'clock. Everyone is invited. Tickets may be procured from members or at the door.

Another club-sponsored affair will be the forthcoming series of ten bridge lessons to be presented at the clubhouse by Tom Stoddard, eminent bridge expert. The first of the lessons will be given Friday evening, Jan. 18. Everyone is invited.
